

JAMES JACKMAN

1403 Sweet Stone CT | Seabrook, TX. 77586 | 713-851-9117 | jtj0002@mix.wvu.edu

EDUCATION

B.S. Computer Science – GPA: 3.45

West Virginia University

Graduation: DEC

2020

- Relevant courses: Operating Systems structure, Computer System Concepts, Computer Graphics, Technical Communications and Writing.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

OOP Programming Languages (Java, C/CPP, Python)

- Developed a ground up MPX operating system using C in a Linux environment. Contains self-implemented memory management, interrupt driven IO, and internal process controls blocks for ease of use.
- Currently developing python website scrapper using Scrappy.py extension to pull and sort user data on Reddit.com.

Databases

- Developing a multilevel database using mySQL to create a randomly generated Nonplayable Character for popular tabletop game, Dungeons and Dragons.

Technical Communication

- Has written 10 technical documents as well as documented over 1000 lines of code
- Effective communication skills, attention to detail in preparing external presentations and performing data analysis.

Leadership

- Promoted productivity and quality standards amongst teams.
- Team oriented leader with ability to effectively build relationships both externally and internally.

EXPERIENCE

Customer Service / Sales Associate

Bay Area Trees & Landscaping

May 2018 –

Aug 2018

- Assisted customers with questions concerning landscaping and gardening.
- Cross trained and provided backup for other customer service representatives.
- Balanced daily cash drawer.

Manager / Lifeguard

Poseidon Pools

June 2013 –

Aug 2016

- Managed team of 6 individuals to accomplish a common goal providing a safe and enjoyable environment for families.
- Orientated attention to detail tasks to provide safety to patrons.
- Communicated effectively with a diverse population.
- Accomplished time sensitive assignments hourly during work shift.
- Taught junior lifeguards equipment inspection tasks.

HONORS & AWARDS

Eagle Scout

President's List

Boys State – State Senator

YEAR ATTAINED

Aug 2014

FA 16' & SP 19'

Aug 16'